

‘O Koke’e

Na: Kale Hannahs

Aia I ka ua, a i ka uka ‘O Koke’e
Noho maila i ka nani ‘O Koamalu
Kū kilakila ‘o Nāpali
Me ka lei lani o ka Lawakua o uka
Noho malie i ka ‘āina lani no
Ho’omalua ‘ia e ke koa
Puni au i ka nani o ka ‘āina
Aia i ka ua, a i ka uka, ‘O Koke’e

Aia i ke anu, a i ka mehana, ‘O Koke’e
Nani kamaha’o ‘O Koamalu
Huna ‘ia ‘o Kalalau ma Nāpali
Me ka welo ‘ana o na ‘ōpua o ia wahi makamae
Kū ka māoli ola o ka ‘āina nani nō
I laila I ka poli o ka mauna
Puni au i ke kani o na manu
Aia i ke anu, a i ka mehana, ‘O Koke’e

Aia i ka pō, a i ke ao, ‘O Koke’e
He hale kipa ‘olu ‘O Koamalu
Kupaianaha ka lewa ‘O Nāpali
Me ke ‘ala o na pua ‘awapuhi
Nui nā mea e ulu ai ka mana‘o
I laila i ka uka kaulana
Puni au i ke aloha ‘O Koamalu
Aia i ka pō, a i ke ao, ‘O Koke’e

*In the rain, in the uplands, of Koke’e
Sitting beautifully is Koamalu
Standing tall is Nāpali
With the heavenly lei of the upland Lawakua wind
 Sitting peacefully in a heavenly land
 In the shade of the koa
 Surrounded by the beauty of place
 In the rain, in the uplands, of Koke’e*

*In the cold, in the warmth, of Koke’e
Wonderful beauty of Koamalu
Hidden is Kalalau in Nāpali
With the fluttering of clouds in this precious place
 Native life is here in this beautiful land
 There in the bosom of the mountain
 Surrounded by the singing of the birds
 In the cold, in the warmth of Koke’e*

*In the dark, In the sunlight, of Koke’e
A house filled with hospitality in Koamalu
Extraordinary is the sky of Nāpali
With the scent of the ‘awapuhi
 So many inspirational thoughts
 There in the famous uplands
 Surrounded by the love of Koamalu
 In the dark, in the light, of Koke’e*
